

Prestigious invite for footballers

LAST year's Carlow senior football finalists, Tinryland, have received an invitation to compete in the elite section of the 23rd Comortas Peile Paidi O'Se which will take place in West Kerry on 25 and 26 February. The prestigious eight team tournament, which will be launched by Taoiseach Enda Kenny in Dublin on Tuesday 14 February, will include seven other club sides that are among the best in Ireland. Included in the line up are Carrickmore of Tyrone, Tuam Stars from Galway, Scotstown from Monaghan, Leixlip (Kildare), Castlebar Mitchells (Mayo) and An Gaeltacht and Dingle from Kerry. Tinryland will hope to have the strongest team possible travelling to Kerry for the event which will be covered by TV3 and will have The Sawdoctors as the main attraction at the event banquet in Ventry on the Saturday evening. Depending on Tinryland's progress, a training session with Kerry player Darragh O'Se is also part of the weekend programme. To offset the cost to the players a number of fund raising events are planned in the coming weeks. The senior team commenced training for the event and the new season under coach
